Five Reasons to Visit Seoul

The Organizing Committee is proud to present Seoul as the venue for the upcoming APDW 2018. Ideally located in the heart of Northeast Asia, Seoul has what it takes to host a successful and memorable event, starting with the Incheon International Airport, which is one of the most top-rated airports in the world, serving more than 87 airlines that connect to over 186 cities worldwide. Moreover, Coex is Seoul's largest convention center and host of numerous major events such as the G20 Seoul Summit in 2010 and now, the APDW 2018. We are planning diverse and exciting social events that will enable all participants to experience not only Korea's colorful cultural heritage but its latest Korean wave acts.

Here is a short list of just 5 reasons why people enjoy visiting Seoul:
